BEVERLY HILLS BAR ASSOCIATION ANNOUNCES JOBS BOARD INCLUDING FREE JOB POSTS FOR NONPROFITS

Beverly Hills, CA – February 16, 2023 – The Beverly Hills Bar Association (BHBA) has launched BHBA Jobs Board, an easy-to-use, affordable platform for employers to distribute their legal job listings in the Los Angeles region and beyond. BHBA Jobs Board (jobs.bhba.org) postings will be shared with BHBA's email list, which includes more than 44,000 legal professionals in Southern California and throughout the world.

"I am delighted to launch this new member benefit. Beyond the significant value to our members, it's an asset for our region's legal community. Finding the right support staff and attorneys is critical to the success of law firms and companies, and BHBA Jobs Board provides an accessible and effective way to help do that," said Malcolm S. McNeil, BHBA President. McNeil is also a partner and international practice co-leader at ArentFox Schiff in Los Angeles.

The launch follows requests from local law firms and BHBA members. "We receive many requests to publicize job openings, and field ongoing member inquiries about what's available in their practice areas, both for themselves and for hiring legal support staff. Our goal with BHBA Jobs Board is to expand opportunities for our members and make the hiring process easier for employers, all on a user-friendly platform with broad reach," said Belinda Macauley, BHBA Executive Director. BHBA Jobs Board offers 30-day jobs postings, featured job and employer options, and an unlimited annual pass for employers who hire on an ongoing basis. All details including pricing are available at jobs.bhba.org.

The BHBA Jobs Board will continue BHBA's and Beverly Hills Bar Foundation's commitment to legal community charitable partners—most recently furthered by extending free online CLE access through BHBA OnDemand to attorneys employed at most California nonprofits. (Visit bhba.org/c3cles for details.) Tax-exempt nonprofit organizations hiring for California positions are eligible for free 30-day job postings on BHBA Jobs Board. Email jobs@bhba.org for more information.

BHBA Jobs Board will also be the central recruitment location for legal support staff placed throughout the greater Los Angeles region by BHBA subsidiary Personnel Referral Service, Inc. Learn more about this service that matches potential staff with hiring attorneys at bhba.org/PRS.
