Mr. Anfuso graduated, with honors (Magna Cum Laude, GPA 3.81) from National University, San Diego, California with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in 1990. After graduation he was employed as a Senior Accountant at Fox & Company, CPAs, a litigation support firm. His areas of experience include forensic accounting and litigation support services in marital dissolution and civil/commercial litigation matters.

As a forensic accountant, Mr. Anfuso has extensive experience in analyzing the financial, accounting and tax aspects of marital dissolution matters and civil litigation cases, including business valuations, Pereira apportionment of business interests, Van Camp analyses, determination of gross cash flow available for support, marital standard of living analyses, and tracing engagements for the purposes of determining post-separation reimbursements, family code §2640 reimbursements and characterization of property as community or separate. Additionally, he has performed services regarding various other family law issues including allocation of interest in pension plans and apportionment of interests in real property (Moore/Marsden calculations) and other special projects.

In 1995, he joined Gursey, Schneider & Co. as a senior accountant in the Litigation Services Department where he specialized in forensic accounting and business valuation and continued to work closely with attorneys and the Courts in litigation matters. On October 31, 1998, Mr. Anfuso opened his current practice.

Mr. Anfuso has testified as an expert witness in family law and civil/commercial litigation matters in Los Angeles, Orange, Santa Barbara, Santa Clara, San Mateo, Sacramento, San Bernardino and Riverside County Superior Courts. He has been appointed as a forensic accounting and valuation expert pursuant to Evidence Code §730 on several occasions. He has prepared and presented reports including business appraisals of professional practices, automobile dealerships, retail establishments, manufacturing concerns, entertainment entities (including determination of celebrity goodwill) and various other business concerns.

Mr. Anfuso is a Certified Public Accountant licensed in the State of California. He has been granted the Accredited in Business Valuation (ABV) accreditation by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, a designation exclusively for CPAs who demonstrate their business valuation expertise and experience and pass a written examination. He is Certified in Financial Forensics (CFF) by the AICPA. He is a Certified Divorce Financial Analyst. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the California Society of Certified Public Accountants. Mr. Anfuso is a Fellow of the American Board of Forensic Accounting. He has presented at numerous continuing professional education courses including those hosted by the California Bar Association, LA County Bar Association, the Santa Barbara Bar Association and the California Society of Certified Public Accountants.
