LAWYERS' MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY PROVIDES LAW STUDENTS AND NEW LAWYERS WITH BEVERLY HILLS BAR ASSOCIATION MEMBERSHIPS

Beverly Hills, CA – May 3, 2021 – The Beverly Hills Bar Association (BHBA) and Lawyers' Mutual Insurance Company announced a new partnership in which Lawyers' Mutual sponsors free BHBA memberships for California law students and lawyers in their first three years of practice.

The memberships will provide students and new lawyers with access to Continuing Legal Education options, networking and leadership opportunities, specialized legal training workshops, a mentorship program, pro bono and community service projects, tools to succeed in solo practices and small firms, and more.

"We are delighted to partner with Lawyers' Mutual to bring our modernized benefits and networking opportunities to the next generation of California lawyers," said Belinda Macauley, Executive Director of BHBA.

Stuart Adlington, Chief Operating Officer of Lawyers' Mutual, said "Lawyers' Mutual Insurance Company is dedicated to insuring and educating California's lawyers by protecting and advancing their practices, their clients and their futures. We view sponsoring BHBA memberships to law students and new lawyers as an excellent complement to our Strong Start Program, which provides affordable coverage to solo practitioners who have been licensed for thirty six months or less."

Law students, law school graduates awaiting bar results or admission, provisionally licensed lawyers, and lawyers licensed for three years or less can join BHBA for free, sponsored by Lawyers' Mutual, at www.BHBA.org/nextgen.
